Naples, June 1. On Sunday last, being the Feast of St. Ferdinand, whose Name the King of Spain bears, the same was celebrated with great Magnificence at Portici, where most of the principal Nobility resorted in their richest Habits to compliment their Majesties and the young Family on that Occasion. A few Days ago two Coaches belonging to Prince Esterhasi were stopped by some Custom-House Officers, on a Supposition that his Servants had concealed some contraband Goods, of which the Ambassador having complained to the King, his Majesty highly disapproved of so rash an Action, and immediately gave Orders for the two Coaches to be delivered to the Prince's Servants. Two Men of War named the St. Charles and the Queen, put to Sea last Saturday from this Port, in order to join the two Galliots that sailed lately for the Sea of Sicily, and to cruize with them against the Barbary Pyrates.

Leghorn, June 5. The Master of a French Ship arrived in this Port says, that there was a smart Engagement last Week off Cape Passaro between four Corsairs, and two Genoese and one Venetian Ship; and that the Action lasted five Hours, in which the three last, which were attacked by the Corsairs, had defended themselves with such Courage, that they sunk one of the Corsairs with 32 Guns on board and Men in Proportion, and drove off the other three, with the Loss of only 7 Men killed and 8 wounded.

Ratisbon, June 13. Field Marshal Count Seckendorff, Governor of Philipsbourg, has presented a Memorial to the Diet of the Empire, praying for Leave to repair the Fortifications of that Place, but as yet no Answer has been given to it. On Tuesday last Count Lucheſi, General of Horse in the Service of the Empress Queen of Hungary, arrived here from Paris.

Cologn, June 21. Prince Charles of Lorrain, who set out early Yesterday Morning from Brussels, arrived here that Evening, and having stopped to change his Relays, proceeded immediately on his Journey to Vienna, which he proposed reaching by Friday Night. The Persons that accompany him are the Count de Vitrimont his first Chamberlain; the Marquess de Los Rios and the Count de St. Ignon his Adjutants General; M. de Thonnois, one of his Gentlemen; Father Halberstein his Confessor; M. de Grand his first Surgeon; and M. Gilbert, his Secretary.

Hambourg, June 22. Prince William of Saxe Gotha arrived here last Saturday the 19th with his Princess, a Daughter of the Dutchess of Holstein, with whom their Highnesses propose to spend some Months in this City.
